

Policy – Guests bringing own cakes

While it is the Merimbula R.S.L Club's policy that no guest, be they visitor or member bring food onto the premises, with intention for it to be consumed while they are here, we do make the exception for special occasion cakes, with the following conditions:

- Cakes MUST be properly iced and decorated special occasion cakes.
- Iced\cream filled sponge like that from the supermarket, supermarket iced mud cakes etc..... are not permitted.
- If a cake arrives that does not meet the requirements, it will be kept in suitable conditions for you to collect and take with you as you leave.
- Cakes are permitted to be bought in and consumed, in the dining room, after *lunch/evening meal ONLY
- Cakes are not permitted to be bought in and consumed outside the above mentioned hours*, except in the event where a privately booked function is in progress.
- The Merimbula R.S.L Club does not provide candles
- The Merimbula R.S.L Club does not provide a cut and serve provision, unless organised in advance with the understanding that 'cakeage' will be charged according to the number of people in the group\booking. (This will not be possible during busy\peak seasonal times).
